► The Land Conservancy's SUMMER PROGRAM MON., JULY 11 6PM AT STRICKER'S GROVE

DIRECTIONS I-74 to Exit #7 (St. Rte. 128). Go N 7 mi. to 11490 Hamilton-Cleves Rd. Free parking.

The Land Conservancy is honored to be included in the 1st Annual Hamilton County 4-H Community Fair to be held July 10-14 at Stricker's Grove on St. Rte. 128 in Crosby Township. Open to the public, the many projects and achievements of 4-H members will be displayed and honored during the 5-day Fair.

This is the first year 4-H has relocated its activities to the popular amusement park in western Hamilton County.

Free admission on Mon., July 11

Admission to the Fair is free on Mon., July 11 for Members and Friends of The Land Conservancy. Visit the 4-H projects, then join us at 6 PM in the Livestock Pavilion to learn more about our work to preserve land and water resources in Hamilton County, and how land conservation benefits us all. Then, enjoy "Time to Shine"— about how 4-H makes a difference in the lives of young people.

SPECIAL 4-H PRESENTATION:

"Time to Shine — A Spotlight on Hamilton County's 4-H Youth"

Tonya Horvath, 4-H Youth Development Educator, will present "Time to Shine" on Mon., July 11 at 6 PM in the Hamilton County Farm Bureau Livestock Pavilion. 4-H Fair exhibitors will join Tonya to show their animals and tell their 4-H stories.

Head, Heart, Hands, Health

4-H is where young people learn leadership, citizenship and life skills to become independent, productive adults.

Seven 4-H clubs are active in Hamilton County, promoting over 200 projects. Under the leadership of Ohio State University faculty, staff and volunteers, Hamilton County's 4-H program is active year round. The focus is on the agricultural world, community service, teen leadership and much more.
